

LANIER

HANDCRAFTED

PENS

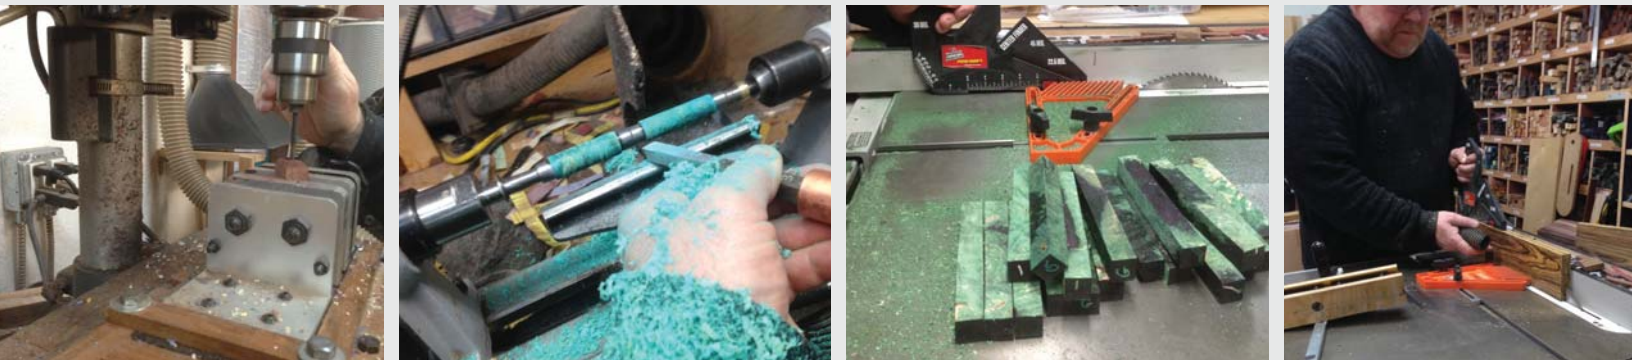

Since 2005

Sheer artistry in fine writing instruments.

Every day since 2005 in Montara, California, a group of uniquely skilled custom instrument makers work with a common goal in mind: to create the highest quality fine writing instruments in the world. In 2013, these craftsmen guided by founder Jim Lanier will produce pens and pencils in 24 different styles and over 800 models. Although a small shop, we are among the industry leaders in hand tooled writing instruments and pay close attentions to details and elegance. These handcrafted models as featured on the following pages reflect our commitment to continually improving the look, the feel and the reliability of our writing instruments.

The fine writing instrument you carry speaks volumes about you.

Baron Fountain and Rollerball Pens

Each Baron pen is handcrafted out of some of the world's finest exotic woods and polished to a high sheen perfection. You can choose from over seventy exotic woods from Australia, Africa, Asia and the frontier forests of the United States. Each pen features an ultra smooth threading and a removable cap that screws on to both the bottom and top of the pen.

If ease of use and beauty are what you're looking for in a rollerball style, try one of our new Baron Rollerball pens. These new smooth operating pens are extremely easy to use, and everyone who owns one will make a lasting personal impression. Available in both gold or rhodium plating.

Baron Fountain pens are trimmed with nibs, clips and other elements made out of the highest quality rhodium and gold plating. The result is a great looking pen that is light weight and one of the smoothest writing instruments available for everyday use. Available with a fine, medium or broad nib tip.

Art Deco Fountain Pens... Every Detail is a Work of Art

Our Art Deco Fountain pens are created with an international visual arts motif that flourished during the 1920's and 1930's. Designed for discriminating collectors, it is manufactured out of the highest quality black titanium and 22kt gold plated components. The pen body is hand tooled and handcrafted out of the world's finest exotic woods and polished to perfection. The pen band is cast and gold plated with the Art-Deco motif, while the clip is cast with starburst detail and a golden Swarovski crystal. The end cap includes threads for easy posting.

Majestic Style Fountain and Rollerball Pens

If you love to collect pens, a Majestic Style pen is the perfect one to add to your collection or to use on special occasions for many years. Pen aficionados can pick from a wide range of exotic hardwoods, and then build its regal profile with black titanium nitride or 22kt gold plated (2 microns thick) accent rings and durable rhodium plated components. Your pen will also feature a sparkling Swarovski crystal embedded in the clip, giving it a distinctive style and flair.

Each Majestic ink pen is hand tooled and handcrafted out of an exotic wood and then hands polished to a sleek and smooth finish. The cap features custom-casted 3D rings with contrasting plating that add to the beauty of each Majestic Pen as well as to its value and durability. Your pen will be truly unique and have a style of its own reflecting your personal choices.
